

ESTATE PLANNING WORKSHEET

for a Single Person

The goal of Skelton Law Offices is to provide legal services of the highest quality as efficiently and economically as possible. To that end, please provide the information called for in this Worksheet. The more we know about your family, your finances, and your goals and objectives, the better able we are to prepare a plan that addresses your circumstances.

Your responses to this Worksheet are strictly confidential.

There will be sections of the Worksheet that are not relevant to you. Simply skip them. If possible, please prepare and return the Worksheet in advance of our initial meeting.

The purpose of this Worksheet is to help - not hinder - the estate planning process. Please do not be overwhelmed. Allow yourself about 1 hour to prepare the Worksheet. We recommend that you keep your appointment even if you are not able to complete the entire Worksheet.

If there are charitable organizations, churches, schools, hospitals, libraries, health organizations, etc., for which you want to provide in your estate plan, please identify them below:

YOUR ASSETS AND PROPERTY

This section of the Worksheet is designed to help you list all the assets you own and their estimated values. If you do not own any assets in a particular category, just leave that subsection blank. In the event that you own more assets in a particular category than can be listed in the space provided in that subsection, you may use extra sheets.

For the purposes of estate planning, the way you own property is extremely important. If you own an asset in common with or in joint tenancy with another person or with other people, please provide details.

REAL ESTATE

List any interest in real estate including your family residence, vacation home, time shares, vacant land, etc. Estimate the fair market value for each asset. If there is a loan against any piece of real estate, please estimate the amount outstanding on the loan as well as an estimate of your equity in the property. If you own the real estate in common with or in joint tenancy with anyone else, please provide details.
